Beijing hits back at Western sanctions

Western govts are seeking to hold Beijing accountable for mass detentions of Muslim Uighurs

ROBIN EMMOTT & DAVID BRUNNSTROM
 Brussels/Washington/ Beijing, March 23

THE US, THE European Union, Britain and Canada imposed sanctions on Chinese officials on Monday for human rights abuses in Xinjiang, the first such coordinated Western action against Beijing under new US President Joe Biden.
 Beijing hit back immediately with punitive measures against the EU that appeared broader, including European lawmakers, diplomats, institutes and families, and banning their businesses from trading with China.
 Western governments are seeking to hold Beijing accountable for mass detentions of Muslim Uighurs in northwestern China, where the US says China is committing genocide. China denies all accusations of abuse.
 The coordinated effort appeared to be early fruit in a concerted US diplomatic push to confront China in league with allies, a core element of Biden's still evolving China policy.
 Senior US administration officials have said they are in daily contact with governments in Europe on China-related issues, something they call the "Europe roadmap".
 "Amid growing international condemnation, (China) continues to commit genocide and crimes against humanity in Xinjiang," US secretary of state Antony Blinken said in a statement ahead of meetings with

Reuters file photo of workers walking by the perimeter fence of what is officially known as a vocational skills education centre at Dabancheng in Xinjiang Uighur Autonomous Region

The coordinated effort appeared to be early fruit in a concerted US diplomatic push to confront China in league with allies, a core element of Biden's still evolving China policy.

EU and Nato ministers in Brussels this week.

Canada's foreign ministry said: "Mounting evidence points to systemic, state-led human rights violations by Chinese authorities."
 Activists and UN rights experts say at least 1 million Muslims have been detained in camps in Xinjiang. The activists and some Western politicians accuse China of using torture, forced labour and sterilisations. China says its camps provide vocational training and are needed to fight extremism.
 The European Union was the first to impose sanctions on Monday on four Chinese officials, including a top security director, and one entity, a decision later mirrored by Britain and Canada.

Myanmar junta blames protesters as EU, US impose restrictions

REUTERS
 March 23

MYANMAR'S MILITARY AC-CUSED anti-junta protesters of arson and violence as Western countries imposed more sanctions on individuals and groups linked to last month's coup and the ensuing bloody crackdown on dissent.
 Junta spokesman Zaw Min Tun said 164 protesters had been killed in the violence and expressed sadness at the deaths.
 "They are also our citizens," he told a news conference in the capital Naypyitaw on Tuesday, adding that the military would use the least force possible to quell violence.
 The Assistance Association for Political Prisoners (AAPP) activist group says at least 261 people have been killed in the brutal crackdown by security forces that has left the Southeast Asian nation in turmoil. Three people, including a teenage boy, were killed in unrest on Monday in Myanmar's second city, Mandalay, witnesses and news reports said. The junta has tried to justify the coup by saying a November 8 election won by Aung San Suu Kyi's National League for Democracy (NLD) was fraudulent — an accusation the electoral commission rejected. Military leaders have promised a new election but have not set a date and have declared a state of emergency.
 Zaw Min Tun blamed protesters for violence and arson and said nine members of the security forces had been killed.
 "Can we call these peaceful protesters?" he said, while showing a video of factories on fire. "Which country or organisation would regard this violence as peaceful?" He said strikes and hospitals not fully operating had caused deaths, including from Covid-19, calling them "undutiful and unethical".

Those also targeted by the US were Chen Mingguo, director of the Xinjiang Public Security Bureau and another senior official in the region, Wang Junzheng. The US had already last year designated for sanctions the top official in Xinjiang, Chen Quanguo, who was not targeted by the other Western allies on Monday, to avoid a larger diplomatic dispute, experts and diplomats said.
 The foreign ministers of Canada and Britain issued a joint statement with Blinken, saying the three were united in demanding that Beijing end its "repressive practices" in Xinjiang. Evidence of abuses was "overwhelming", including satellite imagery, eyewitness testimony, and the Chinese government's own documents, they said.
 Separately, the foreign ministers of Australia and New Zealand issued a statement expressing "grave concerns about the growing number of credible reports of severe human rights abuses against ethnic Uighurs and other Muslim minorities in Xinjiang" and welcoming the measures announced by Canada, the European Union, Britain and the US.—REUTERS

Biden admin urges US court to extradite Rana

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
 Washington, March 23

THE BIDEN ADMINISTRATION has urged a federal court in Los Angeles to certify India's request to extradite fugitive Pakistani-origin Canadian businessman Tahawwur Rana, sought for his involvement in the 2008 Mumbai terror attack, saying he meets all the criteria required for the handover. US district court judge in Los Angeles

Jacqueline Chooljian has scheduled the extradition hearing for April 22.

Assistant US Attorney John J Lulejian, in his submission before a federal US court in Los Angeles, California, said Rana, 59, meets all the criteria to be extradited to India for his trial in the Mumbai terrorist attack. On February 4, Rana's attorney had opposed his extradition.
 "The United States respectfully requests that following the April 22, 2021, extradition hearing, the Court certify India's request for Rana's extradition for the Secretary of State's surrender decision," Lulejian said in his 61-page court submission on Monday.

 Rana, a childhood friend of David Coleman Headley, was arrested on June 10 in Los Angeles on an extradition request by India for his involvement in the Mumbai terror attack in which 166 people, including six Americans, were killed. He has been declared a fugitive by India.

"Fugitive Tahawwur Husain Rana is wanted in India to stand trial for offences related to his role in the 2008 terrorist attacks in Mumbai, India, that resulted in the death of 166 people, the injury of 239 people, and the damage to property in excess of $1.5 billion," Lulejian said.
 As per the India-US Extradition Treaty, the government of India has requested the formal extradition of Rana, and the US has initiated the extradition proceeding.
